Dear Parents,

The purpose of this communication is to provide information regarding a reported threat that took place at O.W. Best Middle School on Thursday, October 25, 2018. We were informed after school hours of a threat made by a student. The investigation took place Thursday, Friday, Monday and today. Once we had confirmation of the alleged threat, the Dearborn Heights Police Department was notified. At no time during the investigation was there any immediate danger to any students or staff members.

Understand that student safety is our number one priority at O.W. Best Middle School, and we take action on any threat made to our students or school.

Thank you,

Aaron Mollett
Principal
